

Web Development

Moore Creative is your one-stop web development firm providing a complete set of web development services from custom website design to advanced internet application development.

The team at Moore Creative works with your company to offer solutions and partnerships for all aspects of your online needs. Depending on your company's situation, we will suggest logo design and identity marketing, website design and development and will continue through to help you pick the best web hosting and domain name registration for the best picks in domain names for your new website!

We help clients reach business goals by designing, developing, integrating and supporting web applications and systems that do more than just provide information; they support client's business models and energize users to get the most from each website experience.

Moore Creative has been working in the area of custom web application development and support since 1999, and our team of designers and developers have been involved in websites and projects ranging from small interactive presentation websites to multi-million dollar online store systems. Web-related services include: website development and website design, custom web application development, web programming, ecommerce web development, website streaming video, website multimedia, and more. Our experience and strong technical competence enables us to deliver scalable solutions that meet customer's needs.

Our web designers and developers are equipped to create a dynamic online presence to promote your business on the web, develop truly functional web application to serve your specific business needs, add Intranet/Extranet solutions, re-develop or improve your existing system adding functionality and effectiveness. Additionally, with expertise in both Microsoft ASP / ASP .NET development and PHP + MySQL development, our developers are also ready to migrate existing sites / functionalities from one platform to another if business needs require.

Core Development Platforms:

ASP and ASP .NET website development

We provide .NET development services having trained and experienced resources with experience with Microsoft ASP development and with ASP .NET website development.

PHP / MySQL website development

We provide helps clients leverage the advantages of LAMP platform delivering dynamic website and web application development using PHP/MySQL

Creative Website Design Services:

- graphic design
- website design / redesign
- flash intros, flash commercials, flash animation
- project related photography
- video streaming
- html email design (email marketing) Website Development Services:

- e-commerce
- e-mail advertising
- online application development
- custom programming / development

- database development (Microsoft SQL Server, Access, MySQL)
- reengineering and migration support
- intranet / extranet development
- content management system integration (CMS-driven websites)
- cross-platform / cross-browser compatibility development (PC: IE, FireFox, Opera & More, Macintosh Safari, IE, FireFox, Camino, Opera & More)

Web / Marketing Consulting:

- web hosting consultation
- search engine optimization consultation
- market research
- best practices guidance
- website analysis (of existing client and competitive industry sites)
- copywriting services